Edyth Bush Institute Now Taking Applications for Empowering Good Cohort Three

Nonprofit Leadership Program has Served over 50 Local Organizations

Winter Park, Florida – Edyth Bush Institute for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership at the Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins College is excited to announce the opening of Empowering Good's third learning cohort application.

"We're thrilled to continue this partnership project with Crummer Graduate School of Business and Orange County, Florida Government to assist local, grassroots, and diverse-led organizations in developing the tools necessary to succeed in the post-pandemic environment," said Min Sun Kim, Executive Director at Edyth Bush Institute.

Empowering Good supports Orange County, Florida nonprofit organizations through education modules and individual organizational coaching in a 360-degree, cohort-style learning environment in five (5) key areas: Impact Measurement, Financial Management, Risk Management, Innovation, and Fundraising. Since its launch in 2022, the Empowering Good program has served over 50 local nonprofit organizations.

"I can't even begin to share my gratitude for the experience of being a part of Empowering Good. Covid hit us hard. So much so that we were stuck on autopilot. We didn't know how to adjust to the new normal," said Renette Clark, Executive Director of Brooke Jenkins Dream 360 Center. "The resources, the opportunities that were given to us through Empowering Good has been a game changer... We now have the foundation we really need to go to our next level."

To apply for Empowering Good's third learning cohort, visit www.empowering-good.org The application deadline is July 21, 2023 to be considered for the third learning cohort, and selected nonprofits will be announced in August.

For the full list of Empowering Good program expectations, applicant qualifications, documentation requirements, as well as virtual information sessions, dates and registration information can be found at www.empowering-good.org.

About the Edyth Bush Institute for Philanthropy & Nonprofit Leadership

The Crummer Graduate School of Business' Edyth Bush Institute for Philanthropy & Nonprofit Leadership at Rollins College is Central Florida's premier source for nonprofit training, certificates, and custom programming. The Center's various programs and courses strengthen nonprofit and philanthropic organizations through education and management support designed to strengthen board governance, enhance the business practices of nonprofit organizations, and expand the influence of the nonprofit sector.
